

Thank you for your interest in the American Translators Association. ATA membership is open to anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting as a profession or as a scholarly pursuit. All individual applicants are first accepted as Associate or Student members before gaining eligibility for Active or Corresponding membership. You can also join online at www.atanet.org/join.

ATA Membership for Individuals

Associate Membership

Open to individuals interested in the goals and objectives of ATA.

- Associate members receive the benefit of listing their services in the Language Services Directory.

Student Membership

Open to graduate and undergraduate college or university students enrolled full-time in any program or part-time in a translation- or interpreting-related program, including foreign language study.

- Student members cannot list their services in the Language Services Directory.
- Requires proof of current student enrollment (in English).
- Membership is limited to 4 years.

ATA Membership for Organizations

Corporate Membership

Membership is in the name of the corporation, not of an individual.

- Corporate members receive the benefit of listing their services in the Language Services Directory.
- Employees of Corporate members are not eligible to take the ATA certification examination unless they are also individual members.

Institutional Membership

Membership is in the name of the institution, not of an individual.

- Institutional members cannot list their services in the Language Services Directory.
- Employees of Institutional members are not eligible to take the ATA certification examination unless they are also individual members.
- Proof of nonprofit status is required.

ATA Divisions

ATA also offers the opportunity to share common interests through membership in ATA divisions at no additional cost. Divisions provide a specialized network through their blogs, newsletters, websites, listserves, and other activities. You must be an ATA member to join a division.
